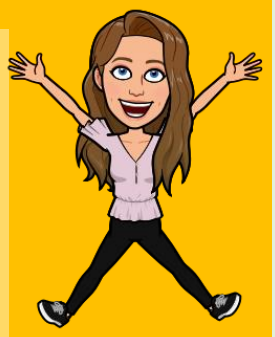
Year 3 Newsletter

Last week we were learning....



In science, the children measured the sunflowers they had been caring for over the last few weeks. They used this information to present on a bar chart! They were very determined and showed great enthusiasm as they created their first bar chart in year 3!

The children participated in Sports Day before half term! They showed great sportsmanship and unity as they cheered each other on. We can't wait to find out the winning house!

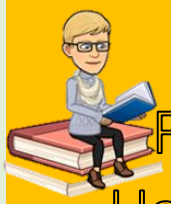
Last Wednesday, we watched a live orchestra performance based on Sea Stories! The children loved learning about the instrument families, the sounds they made and had a go at being a composer!

This week we will be learning....

We will be starting some exciting new units this half term! In Learning Challenge, we will be starting the unit 'Why is planet Earth in danger?'. We will begin by learning about rainforests and locate them on a map.

In science, we are starting 'The Nappy Challenge!', this unit is a child led unit which comes from the children's questions. This week the children will be analysing the parts of a nappy and coming up with questions to then investigate in the coming weeks!

The children will have a new core text called 'The Lorax' by Dr Seuss which ties in with our Learning Challenge unit. They will begin with making predictions from looking at the front cover and they will then build up to writing a diary entry based on the start of the story.



Don't Forget!

As the weather (hopefully) gets warmer, please ensure your children have sun-cream (when necessary), hats and water bottles.

Please label all of your child's belongings with their name and class (coats, water bottles, hats, jumpers, cardigans, etc.)

Home Learning...

Homework is set every MONDAY and due in the following Monday. This week Year 3 have the following online tasks to complete:
