Year 4 Newsletter

In English, we explored different story openers and used this to inform our Big Write. We focused on writing an introduction to a story, using what we had learnt to ensure that we were able to appeal and draw in our audience through action, setting description or by introducing the main characters. We also continued to focus on building complex sentences using a range of different conjunctions.

We continued to learn about decimals including how to partition and order decimals. We also spent time learning our times tables in preparation for the test following half term.

As artists we were making our own repeated patterns taking inspiration various sources including the rain forest and the work of artist William Morris.

This week we will be learning....

We will be showcasing our P.E. skills this week and working as a team as we earn points for our houses by competing in the school sports day event.

In science, we will be exploring what materials make good conductors and insulators. We will be applying what we have learnt over the course of the topic to solve a problem.

We have the opportunity to take part in an exciting musical experience this week as we listen to the Bournemouth Philharmonic Orchestra playing live through Zoom.

Don't Forget!
