Towers Times

NEWSLETTER 22ND JANUARY 2021

Dear families,

We would like to say a huge thank you and well done to all of our parents who are at home supporting their children with remote learning. We know that there are challenges but you are all doing an amazing job. Keep talking to us as there are lots of things that we may be able to do to help. We have been so impressed with how the children are engaging with the learning opportunities and seeing the work uploaded. It is so encouraging. A couple of parents have asked what they can do to further support their children at home with staying focused and motivated or with their learning. Please see our website for helpful tips, alternatively contact your teacher, we are here to help!

Miss Gad has been reminding the children that there is still one week left to submit entries for the MOBIE challenge to design your house of the future. If you are not yet familiar with this, check out your Google Classroom stream from yesterday, where Miss Gad has posted a youtube link to explain all about the challenge. It is a great fun way to keep children busy on a project based activity - and it might just give you a breather too! Don't forget to upload your entries.

We say a fond farewell to Mrs Joyce today as she takes some time out to spend with her young family. Mrs Joyce joined us in 2007 and has been a fantastic member of our Towers team over the past 13 years. A wonderful teacher to so many children, and an inspiring Literacy Lead and Year Group Lead. She will be very much missed by all of us at Towers! I am sure that you will join us in wishing her well in her exciting new future.

Also, huge congratulations to Mrs Hatfull who has today given birth to a healthy baby boy. Mrs Hatfull and the new baby are well and we wish the family all the best whilst they get to know their new baby and introduce him to his siblings. We look forward to a time in the future when we can meet the new baby!

Have a lovely weekend!
