NEWSLETTER 29TH JANUARY 2021

Dear families,

Fingers crossed for snow this weekend so we can go and build some socially distanced snowmen! We were so hopeful last weekend, but it wasn't to be; but we did get some beautiful sunshine and plenty of frost. We wanted to give a mention to Mr Hardy who has been gritting the pathways around the school and ensuring that staff and those children attending school could move around the site safely! Thank you Mr Hardy!

Next week is Children's Mental Health Week. We are so impressed with the resilience and stamina of our children and their families, and at this time, with mental and emotional wellness at the forefront of all our minds, it is the perfect time to focus on this. We have a range of activities planned for the coming week, so do watch out for these on your Google Classroom. We are really looking forward to seeing how creative the children can be in dressing up!

As we start our fifth week of lockdown and remote learning, we want to say what a terrific job you are doing. It is not easy to work, teach a range of subjects and year groups, clean, cook, all this whilst still smiling and keeping everyone happy. Remember that no one can do your job as well as you, so be kind to yourselves and remember we are here to help if you need us. We will be sending a personal letter from us to you just reflecting on this time – we hope the sentiment to which it was written is well received in supporting you as families.

This weekend it is the RSPB 'Big Garden Birdwatch'. Mrs Treadgold and Mrs French have posted some information to the Google Classrooms, about a great way to spend an hour over the weekend, come rain, snow or shine, and from the comfort of your own window, back garden or balcony. Check out Google Classroom and the link below for more details.
