Year 3 Newsletter

Last week we were learning....

what riddles are and the children created their own based on something that makes them feel positive! The children shared their riddles and they loved guessing what each other's were about!

During our history lesson, the children recalled some facts about the Stone Age and Ancient Greece to compare and analyse which society were the most advanced. They compared the homes, clothing, inventions and jobs.

In science, the children created puppets! They used this alongside a light source (a torch) to investigate how shadows change size and shape.

This week we will be learning....

what a denominator and numerator is in a fraction. We will also be learning what a whole is and comparing unit fractions.

We will also be starting a new Learning Challenge topic of 'Why do people holiday in the Mediterranean?'. We will start off by identifying where the Mediterranean is using an atlas and also locate some of the countries in the region.

In English, we will be starting a new core text, 'Mr Stink'. We will be writing a play script based on the conversation between two of the main characters.
